The School of International Service is sponsoring a Conference on Executive-Legislative Interactions in U.S. Foreign Policy, May 4-5-6. Our plan is to bring together a group of participants principally from the Washington area who have a professional interest and concern in U.S. Foreign policy. I enclose a copy of the program which indicates the topics of papers to be presented. We would very much like to have you serve as a panelist at one of the sessions. I will appreciate your calling me at home (538-2335) or leaving a message at my office (686-2480) as to your interest and availability. We need a prompt reply in order to get the programs printed (not later than April 18).

Cordially yours,

1. [REDACTED]				Several weeks ago I talked to [REDACTED] who you know STATINTL participating in this year's Congressional Fellowship Program, about an invitation he had received to participate in a conference on Executive-Legislative Interactions in U.S. Foreign Policy at American University. I recommended to [REDACTED] that he turn down the invitation on the basis that I thought he may be getting in over his head, that regardless of disclaimers he would be looked upon either as an Agency representative or as a "plant" (which would be worse), and that if he participated it would be very difficult to avoid an imbroglio.
2. [REDACTED]				[REDACTED] turned down the invitation. However, I do feel that the fact that the invitation was extended is a credit and an honor to [REDACTED] and I am forwarding a copy of the invitation and program it concerns so you may call it to the attention of Mr. Duckett and/or others as you deem appropriate.
